LODGE APPROVES BUILDING PLANS

Odd Fellows Empower Committee to Continue Work, Which Will be Started September 1

BUILDINGS TO BE JOINED
New Structure Will Give Frontage of 120 Feet in Morgan Street for the Lodge

Members of Franklin lodge No. 35, I. O. O. F., approved the report of the building committee Wednesday night and empowered the committee to go ahead with the remodeling of the Poundstone property at the corner of Morgan and Third streets, and extending 165 feet south in Morgan street, which was recently purchased by the lodge for a home.

The committee expects to have the work started by September 1.

The comprehensive remodeling plan calls for extending the present buildings, south of the main building, to the sidewalk line in Morgan street, and the erection of a two-story building in the vacant space between the building occupied by Dr. D. D. VanOsdel's offices and the Home Restaurant.

This will give a Morgan street frontage of 120 feet for the lodge building, and will leave the office rooms undisturbed.

The main entrance to the building will be at the entrance to the Dr. VanOsdel offices. Entrances to Dr. VanOsdel's and Dr. J. M. Lee's offices will be from the lobby at the main entrance and from this will lead the only stairway to the second floor.

The second floor of the main building, which has a frontage of 44 feet in Morgan street and is fifty feet deep, will be used as a lounge room. All of the partitions will be torn out and a raised platform will be built around the four sides of the room.

On the second floor over the rooms where Dr. Lee's and Dr. VanOsdel's offices are situated, will be candidates' rooms and lockers for storing the degree teams' paraphernalia.

The second floor of the extension, which will join up the old building with the two-story brick building on the alley, occupied by the Home Restaurant and Harrell's ice cream plant, will be used as a dining room by the lodge.

The committee expects to decorate the lodge room and all of the second floor rooms on an elaborate scale. The same artist who decorated the lodge room which was destroyed by fire January 25, will be engaged to do the work.

After these plans are carried out, the lodge expects to redecorate and otherwise improve the second floor of the building.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES TO CONTRIBUTE A LIGHT

Postmaster A. L. Riggs and 19 Men at Postoffice First to Announce Gift for Boulevard

OTHERS EXPECTED TO FOLLOW

Postmaster A. L. Riggs and local postal employees are the first to announce that they will purchase a pedestal light for the Memorial park boulevard which is now under construction.

The announcement was made this afternoon that Mr. Riggs and the nineteen men at the postoffice, including the city letter carriers and rural mail carriers, had raised a fund of $50 which will be used to purchase one of the thirty-three ornamental lights which it is hoped to erect along the boulevard, when it is completed, beginning at Ninth street and following the new roadway around to Main street.

The public spirit demonstrated by the postmaster and postal employees, it is believed, will stir many groups of men as well as fraternal, civic, social and commercial organizations to do their part in making the boulevard a "great white way."

The better Rush county organization made the first appeal for subscriptions through the Daily Republican, Wednesday evening and the postoffice men's response was prompt.

MRS. E. R. CASADY RETURNED

Presence of Mind Saves Her From Being Seriously Injured

Mrs. E. R. Casady was painfully burned about the face, arms, and shoulders Wednesday evening about six o'clock while assisting in the preparation of the evening meal at her home in East Ninth street.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Casady opened the oven door of a cooking stove, releasing gas which had escaped and accumulated in the oven, and which became ignited in some manner from one of the burners on top of the stove. Mrs. Casady's clothing caught fire and it is thought that only her presence of mind in wrapping an apron quickly about the burning garments, saved her from serious injury.

KIWANIS OFFERS TO SUPPORT DAY

Pledges Efforts to Co-operate in Observance of Defense Day on September 12

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED

Robert E. Mansfield, District Chairman, Explains Purpose of the Demonstration

Defense Day plans were outlined and an appeal made to the Kiwanis club for support of the state-wide observance September 12, at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club today noon, when Robert E. Mansfield, district manager of the Defense Day program, spoke to the club.

Vorhees Cavitt of this city, who has been appointed county chairman by Mr. Mansfield, was present at the meeting today and asked for support from the club members.

The club pledged co-operation with the proposed movement, and appointed a Defense Day committee to represent the club, and the members of the committee are Curt Hester, Dr. H. V. Logan and Earl Osborne.

Mr. Mansfield explained the purpose of the Defense Day program that will be carried out practically every state of the union on September 12. He pointed out that the idea was not to portray the strength of man-power or battleships, but to bring out all agencies in the commercial world as well, and show the power that the United States has in reserve in many forms, other than military strength.

Among the guests were Leslie Pore of Toledo, a young man who is visiting Fred Arbuckle, and who gave several musical selections, and Mr. Evans, associated with the Fifth-Third National bank of Cincinnati. Thomas Garriott, secretary of the Greenfield club, was also a guest.

G. C. P. STATE LEADERS RELIEVED OF PROBLEMS

Controversy Over Supt. Burris' Successor Ends When He Announces He Will Continue

UNTIL AFTER THE ELECTION

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 21—Republican leaders were relieved of a difficult political problem today through announcement that Benjamin Burris, state superintendent of public instruction, will not resign at the present time.

Announcement that Burris had decided not to quit on Sept. 1 to become head of the state normal at Muncie was made after he had a long conference with Governor Branch.

FOILED

Slow Season for Summer Resorts, Local People Say

Rush county people who are spending vacations at the resorts of Northern Indiana, Michigan, and Wisconsin report that, as a general rule, these places are doing only about fifty percent of their normal business for this time of the year. The cause of this condition is attributed to the late cool season which enables people to remain comfortably at home and to the increasing tendency of motorists to cover as much territory as possible during their vacations, pausing only long enough to pitch camp at night.

BOLT STRIKES NEAR THE COOLIDGE HOME

Only Fact That House Was Not Wired Prevented Fire and Possible Injury to Occupants

COOLIDGES IGNORANT OF IT

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
Plymouth, Vt., Aug. 21—A bolt of lightning struck within fifty yards of President Coolidge and his family during a terrific electric storm which swept Plymouth last night.

Only the fact that the home of the president's father is not wired for either telephone or electric lights prevented a fire and possible injury to those in the house.

The bolt struck a telephone pole in the rear of the house of J. J. Wilder, just up the road from the Coolidge house.

A sheet of flame sped along the wires, passed the Coolidge house and then flashed in the temporary telephone office installed in the general store. The telephone repairman who put the circuits back into commission declared the damage clearly showed that the bolt was a tremendous discharge. Had it struck the Coolidge house, it might have destroyed it.

The president and members of his family were not alarmed and they were ignorant of the danger. They heard only the crash of the bolt.

ONE WEEK UNTIL THE RURAL SCHOOLS OPEN

All Except Jackson Township and Carthage Buildings Will Get Under Way Sept. 1

FEW TEACHERS' VACANCIES

Only another full week of vacation remains for most of the rural schools, which will open Monday, September 1 in most of the townships, according to B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent.

The school in Jackson township and Carthage will probably not start with the rest of the schools. The Jackson township school will wait until September 8, when the Rushville city schools open, because the high school pupils will be transferred here, and the township would have an additional week to pay for the hauling of the pupils, unless the two schools started at once.

The Carthage school building, which is nearing completion, after having been completely remodeled will not be ready for September 1. This building is ready, it is understood, but some of the equipment and supplies have been delayed, and the school will probably not be ready for the opening until the second week in September.

The supply of teachers is said to be good, but the kind of a teacher for certain positions is a hard matter, according to Mr. Farthing, who reported today that there were still several vacancies that had to be supplied before the school opening.

JUDGMENT OF $1,750 ASKED

J. R. Watkins Co., Files Suit Against Representative

The J. R. Watkins Company, an Indiana corporation that deals in drugs and sundries, has brought suit in the circuit court against a local representative, D. G. Douthett and his bondsmen, seeking judgment for $1,750. The complaint alleges that the contract between the agent and the firm has been broken, and that the sum demanded is due the plaintiff.

OUR DAILY BOOST

What's Wrong With Rush County Land?

Rush County land owners are overlooking the chance to elevate their own status to the detriment of the county.

Rush County land owners have an opportunity in educational boosting, which does not seem open to any other division of business.

By such boosting they may emphasize every principle of republican government: liberty, opportunity to advance, loyalty to county, right to achieve prominence in any walk of life, and tie them all to the ownership of land.

There's nothing wrong with Rush County Land!

MORE THAN PASSING INTEREST IN MEETING

Rush County Bankers Interested in National Convention, to be Held in Chicago

LETTER FROM WALTER W. HEAD

Rush county bankers are taking more than passing interest this year in the convention of the American Bankers Association, since it will be held at Chicago, September 29 to October 2. Due to the fact that the convention will be in easy access of local bankers and also that it comes in the midst of the presidential campaign, the attendance from this county is expected to be larger than usual.

Glen Foster, cashier of the American National bank and county chairman for the American Bankers Association, has received a communication from Walter W. Head, president, pointing out the importance of the meeting and urging the attendance of every banker in the county.

Mr. Head refers to the fact that the convention will be entirely devoid of partisan flavor, but that it will necessarily take note of the condition in which the country finds itself.

It is expected that Rush county bankers will also be well represented at the annual convention of the Indiana Bankers' Association in Indianapolis September 11 and 12.

Miss Margaret Carroll is acting as chief operator at the Rushville Telephone company office in the absence of Miss Anna Geraghty.

PLANNING TO DRILL FOR OIL

Estell and Rhodes of Knightstown Seeking Rush County Leases

Estell and Rhodes, well drillers of Knightstown, recently were in this city endeavoring to secure leases on land in northern Rush county, with the intention of drilling for oil.

It is understood that they propose to lease about two thousand acres in the neighborhood of Knightstown and to start immediately the drilling of a well just outside the city limits southeast of the city. Two wells previously drilled, one household and one west, both produced oil.

Estell and Rhodes have recently been drilling in the southwestern states.

TRAIN IS WRECKED, ENGINEER KILLED

Fireman Also Probably Fatally Scalded When B. & O. Passenger Leaves Rails Near Mitchell

ENGINE, 3 CARS TURN OVER

Passengers All Escape Injury in Mishap Caused by Engineer Taking The Siding

(By United Press)
Washington, Ind., Aug. 21—John Donnelly, engineer, was killed and Fireman Simmons was probably fatally scalded when the Baltimore & Ohio passenger train No. 12, St. Louis to Cincinnati, was wrecked shortly distance west of Mitchell early today.

The engine and three cars turned over while the train was traveling at high speed. The passengers all escaped injury.

The track was torn up for several hundred feet, blocking traffic for several hours.

Donnelly and Simmons both lived here.

After a preliminary investigation, it was said Donnelly took the siding near the Mitchell station and thought he was on the main line. The train struck a derail at the end of the siding nearly a mile from Mitchell.

Simmons was taken to a hospital in Seymour where it was said that his recovery was doubtful.

Donnelly was 78 years old and was one of the oldest engineers in the country. He was eligible for retirement several years ago but refused, saying he wanted to stay with his throttle.

Members of the Philadelphia National baseball team, enroute to Cincinnati for a game this afternoon, were on the train. None of the team was injured.

A Monon railroad took the ball players and other passengers on their way to Cincinnati.

PREPARE REPORT ON THE 'KID'S' MENTALITY

Defense Physicians at Work While Two Corps of Legal Experts Get Ready for Hearing

M'COY SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 21—Two corps of expert criminal procedure craftsmen speeded into action today, one attempting to send Kid McCoy to the gallows and the others hoping to free him.

When the former ring idol and heart breaker without a peer, spent another quiet night following his brainstorm of Tuesday, physicians employed by the defense to find traces of insanity in the "kid's" mentality prepared a report to be submitted today.

FLIERS HOP OFF FOR GREENLAND

Accompanied by Italian Aviator, Lieuts. Smith and Nelson are Sighted Over U. S. S. Richmond

707 MILES FROM REYKJAVIK

All of the Machines Running Perfectly—Flight Imperative Due to Low Fuel Supply

On board the U. S. S. Richmond, at sea, Aug. 21—With Major Locatelli, the Italian aviator, in the lead and Lieuts. Smith and Nelson, the Americans, following in order, the three round the world fliers passed over the Richmond at 9:32 a. m., (Greenwich time) today.

All the machines were running perfectly, the sky was somewhat cloudy and the sea was smooth as they drove on their way.

(The Richmond is approximately 707 miles from Reykjavik, guarding one portion of the Yeland-Greenland leg.)

Washington, Aug. 21—A bare cable from Iceland that the American fliers had started their daring 825 mile dash over the ice clogged ocean to Greenland set the war department agog this morning.

News that the aviators had hoped off was received through the naval radio shortly before 10 a. m., it was learned.

(A direct dispatch to the United Press from its Reykjavik correspondent was received in New York at 7:30 a. m., that the fliers were on their way.)

Every agency of communication over which the government has control was immediately tuned for advice on the program of the longest hop yet attempted by the round the world fliers.

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 21—Lieutenants Lowell Smith and Eric Nelson, the American air globe trotters, got away at 7:10 a'clock this morning and with clear weather favoring them, disappeared into the southwest headed for Fredericksdal Greenland, 825 miles away.

The Americans were accompanied by Lieut. Locatelli, the Italian round the world flier.

There is a possibility the fliers may not make an extended stop at Fredericksdal. Smith declared before hopping off. Present plans call for an overnight halt but there is a chance the three airmen may wing on to Iqavut on the western coast of Greenland. This is dependent upon

MEAN TEMPERATURE ON MARS ABOVE FREEZING

Heat Conditions Vastly Different From Conditions Previously Supposed to Exist There

REVEALED IN NEW STUDIESBy MAGNER WHITE
(Written for United Press)

Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz., Aug. 21—Heat conditions on Mars are vastly different from the conditions previously supposed to exist there, it has been revealed in special studies made at Lowell observatory here.

Using specially designed instruments that reacted directly to heat reflected from the planet, the scientist found a state of affairs not at all inhospitable to organic life.

The results are in conflict with those obtained from mathematical computations.

From this the scientists at Lowell Observatory infer unknown factors govern the temperature of the planet. In no way can they discover the discrepancies in the instruments and theoretical computations.

The investigations reveal, that contrary to prevailing belief, the mean temperature of Mars instead of being below freezing is probably much above that point.

The Improved COACH on the HUDSON Super-Six

For the First Time in History Closed Car Comforts at EXACTLY Open Car Cost

This Hudson Coach makes history. It is the first closed car ever to sell at exactly open car cost.

And Hudson, alone, can build it. As the largest producer of 6-cylinder closed cars in the world, Hudson exclusively holds the advantages to create this car and this price.

Greatest of All Hudson Achievements

And now full size balloon tires are standard equipment. Do not confuse with "semi-balloon" types. Hudson's are genuine, full size balloon tires—33"x6.20". Compare the difference.

Hudson has not simply "added balloon tires." Both running and steering gear have been especially designed to compensate for the radical differences balloon tires bring.

The result is the easiest

More than ever, "Closed Car Comforts at Open Car Cost" is the uppermost buying issue. Note how fast the Coach is displacing open cars.

As the wanted type the Coach maintains the highest resale value against the waning desirability of the open car.

Making Tax Levies

This is the season when taxpayers should be alert. If they have a complaint against tax rates, they should not wait until next spring when they pay their taxes, to raise it.

Now is the time. The law provides a way for taxpayers to get a hearing on the budget of any municipal corporation, school corporation, or township, which is used as the basis for making the tax levies for 1925.

Careful newspaper readers will have noticed that the various townships have been giving notice in legal advertisements that the taxing officials will meet on Tuesday, September 2, to give consideration to the budget, which is appended, and to make up the tax rates for the coming year.

This is in accordance with the law of Indiana. The Budget law of 1921, Acts 1921, page 649, requires that the proper officer of each corporation shall publish a budget upon forms prescribed by the state board of accountants, "showing in detail the money proposed to be expended during the succeeding year, the valuation of all taxable property within the jurisdiction, and the rate of taxation which it is proposed to establish after a public hearing."

This hearing must be held at such time as will not be too late for the taxpayers to exercise their right of appeal from the levies then made.

Ten or more taxpayers, who will be affected by the levy, other than those who pay poll taxes only, may file an appeal with the county auditor, not later than the fourth Monday in September. The auditor immediately will forward the appeal to the state board of tax commissioners, who must fix a date for hearing within the county not less than five nor more than thirty days after receipt of such appeal. After the hearing the state board may approve or reduce the levies, but may not increase them.

How Times Change

Who can remember the time when a fellow in need of a shave and haircut had only to take a squint along the curb for a red, white and blue barber pole. Or, when a fellow could satisfy his appetite in a lunchroom, buy his spectacles of an optician, buy his daily rations at a grocery and butcher shop, take it home to a cottage and have it cooked by a long-haired wife, buy his clothes at the clothing store, have his watch fixed by a repairman, have his physical ailments cured by the family doctor and be buried by an undertaker?

But "them days have gone forever." If he is not adept with a safety razor, he must hire himself to a tonsorial parlor or masseur to get rid of a few days' growth, and there he finds a shop full of women folks waiting their turn with the champion barber.

Once upon a time a hand-me-down and a derby graced a dummy on the flag stones outside the clothiers, and in those days a fellow never had to look up a sartorial arcade for a two-pants suit and a four-in-hand.

When a man wanted a "ham-and" in those happy, bygone days, he never thought of looking up a restaurant, a cafe, a cafeteria or a roof garden.

Butcher shops and grocery stores suited our respected ancestors and they thrived on the fare, but modernity must call them delicatessen shops and markets. A watch repairman was a watch repairman but now he is a horologist, and the modern jeweler is a lapidary. An optician was an optician, but in these days he is an optometrist.

A couple of decades ago a mortician was just a plain undertaker. In the succeeding years he has been described as an embalmer and a funeral director.

Time was when a cottage was a cottage, not a bungalow; a balcony was just a balcony like the budding Romeos and Juliets used, not a mezzanine floor; an automobile was an automobile, not a coupe, sedan, landaulet, Brougham or berlin; socks were not hosiery; ties were not cravats; dressmakers were not modistes; doctors were neither surgeons, specialists, pathologists, adeopaths, homoeopaths, osteopaths, chiropractors and chiropodists.

There may be a reason, but what is it?

The Hodge-Podge

By a Paragapher with a Soul

Life has no bitterness if we flavor it with something sweet each day.

Truth is scarce, which makes it mighty.

Don't scrap unless the other fellow insists on it — and then do a good job.

Not all of the babies called Bill get the name because they arrive the first day of the month.

Folks are hard to please who laugh at grief and cry at every wheeze.

All who are cuckoo are not housed in clocks.

Hitting the high spots is always followed by low spirits.

Taking it easy often results in our getting it hard later on.

And another one of the imperative needs of the day is a flivvering wage.

The great trouble with most of us is that we feel at home every place but home.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON.—Now that the nominations are over and the candidates are duly aware of their nominations, Democratic managers have before them as the big task of the campaign the job of finding some method to offset what may be termed the "radio reaction" against the Democratic convention.

For although on the surface the major animosities engendered during the 16 days' battle at New York have been allayed, and the professional party politicians have fallen into line behind the "party's choice," there is no dodging the fact that the exhibition of inter-party friction and divergence of views staged at the convention made an adverse impression on the rank and file of voters that will require all Davis' skill and diplomacy to erase.

No parallel exists for the present situation.

For the recent conventions were the first at which the rank and file of voters, the folks who cast the ballots but do not attend the conventions, were not in as big a way.

The great radio reaction, numbering millions, did something besides merely "listen in." It formed opinions and drew conclusions.

Having heard and arrived at clearly established views of its own, it will be more difficult for the party's campaign spokesmen to paint a convincing picture of harmony and unity and strength.

That this is a handicap more difficult to overcome than the mere charges and arguments of rival party spokesmen is being forced home on the attention of the Democratic managers.

Of course it is a subject that isn't spoken about out loud. Matters of deepest concern often are held most secret. But by the same token they are the ones that cause the most worry.

DAVIS, as the candidate of the New York convention, falls heir, therefore, to the defecations from the party which were broadcast, along with the convention bickerings, by the convention radio. Can he, either in person or by radio, by broadcasting his own magnetism and personality, offset the damage to his campaign the radio had accomplished even before his nomination?

If he can accomplish that, he will have overcome what is perhaps the greatest difficulty in his race.

INQUIRIES quietly made in non-political homes in many sections of the country have developed that the views and opinions gained by the ordinary folks who listened in on the convention are very clear and definitely fixed.

They are not regarded by their holders as based on second hand information. Every one of these listeners in thinks of himself as having been present at the convention in person. If you try to tell one of these that he has the wrong dope, his answer will be: "You can't tell me! I heard the whole thing myself, and I know what I'm talking about!"

Typical of answers received to inquiries sent out by mail to sound the extent of this "radio reaction," is the following from a reply received from a rural section of Indiana:

"I am a lifelong Democrat, who heard the whole convention by radio, is so disgusted with the way they did, he says he will vote for Coolidge. And he is not the only Democrat from around here who will vote for him."

THE radio, as a political instrument, therefore appears to have its handicaps as well as its advantages.

Farrell Sees Finnis Declining

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Aug. 21—Finland, as the runner-up to the United States in the Olympic track and field games at Paris, lived up to the prediction made after the 1920 games in Antwerp. But Finland did not put up the fight that was expected.

The Finnish team that competed in Paris was not nearly as strong or as well balanced as the little band of sturdy athletes that thrilled the crowds in the Belgian capital.

In the field events, where the Finns were expected to cut deeply into the territory that had been more or less leased by the United States, they failed badly. On the track they would have been shut out if they did not have the marvelous Nurmi and the plodding Ritola.

In the four years between 1920 and 1924, when American coaches figured that they would make a lot of progress, the Finns not only failed to develop strength, but they apparently suffered a decline.

Finland scored a lot of points in the Paris games, and it was quite an accomplishment for such a small nation, but their results were not so inspiring when it is recalled that two athletes, Nurmi and Ritola won five events and co-operated in winning a sixth for a total of more than 60 points.

Much has been published about the little band of 70 Finns that held its head up so well in competition against a powerful team of more than 300 Americans. Some of the English newspapermen made much of the disparity in numbers until it was called to their attention that the 300 Americans were not all track and field men and that the team which was regarded as an American unit consisted of tennis players, swimmers, oarsmen, cyclists, boxers, wrestlers, fencers, gymnasts and horsemen. Many Americans argue that the United States, and the officials wanted to do it, could have sent a team of 30 track and field stars to Paris and would have scored as many points.

Suggestions were made that the only way to impose what has been looked upon as a necessary handicap in the Americans would be to limit the entries in each event to one starter. To which the Americans replied, "Fair enough. We'll play this game any way you will play it yourself."

Since the Finns were not as strong in Paris as they were in Antwerp there is no reason to believe that the present system of conducting athletics in Finland will produce a better team in 1928. The system is a good one, and it would seem that the failure of the Finns to progress in the past four years was a result of poor material and not because of a defective system of teaching and training.

The Finns are natural runners, but they do not take to sprinting, jumping and hurdling, and they never can hope to win an Olympic championship without developing strength in those events.

FLIERS HOP OFF FOR GREENLAND

weather conditions at Fredericksdal. Iqigut is the last stop in Greenland for the fliers and is up the western coast 150 miles from Fredericksdal.

The air adventurers will make a one day's stop at Iqigut and then take to the air again, heading for Indian Harbor, Labrador, whence they will continue down the eastern coast of North America to Boston. They hope to arrive in Boston not later than September 1.

Today's flight was almost imperative owing to the low fuel supply on the navy cruisers which are guarding the airmen.

Navy officials pointed out that there are no tankers close to the path of the fliers and that the ships probably be forced to make long cruises in order to refuel in case the delay was extended.

The U. S. S. Richmond, American cruiser which brought repair parts to the fliers following the accident Monday, cruised out to take its place in the chain of convoys between Iceland and Greenland last night.

The hop off terminated a fortnight's delay here caused first by unfavorable weather and later by a mishap which occurred early this week when the planes were damaged attempting to take the air with too heavy a load of fuel.

HONORS GUESTS

Mrs. Pete Johnson entertained at her home in East Eighth street with a dainty breakfast honoring several out of town guests who have been visiting in this city for the past two weeks. The table was artistically arranged with pretty garden flowers. Covers were laid for Mrs. Louis Smith and Mrs. Barney Hines and children of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Mollie Waite of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Claude Bradley of Springfield, Ohio, Mrs. M. Martin of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. John Walker of Indianapolis and Mrs. Marcia Hughes, Mrs. William Bradley, Mrs. Orville Cruse, Mrs. Willis Summerville, Mrs. Essex Barber and Miss Leona Fletcher.

Miss Alice King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted C. King of near New Salem, was one of the honor campers at the Girls' club camp in Shelby county last week, instead of Miss Leila King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard King, who was announced as one of the winners of honors. Leila King did not attend the camp, it is stated.

Thompson's Fruit Market

We still have Georgia Bell White Peaches for Saturday; also Yellow Elberta peaches. We are buying Tip-Top Cantaloupes direct from the growers. We truck them ourselves and see that they are picked ripe. This insures you ripe, sweet cantaloupes. I know the cantaloupes that were shipped were not as sweet as they should be, but these home melons are extra sweet and good. Watermelons on ice. We sell halves when you prefer them. Blue Damsen Plums are here now. Fresh Vegetables every day. We carry a full line of the best quality Fruits that can be bought. Fresh Fish are fine now. Country Butter and Fresh Eggs.

Yes, We Deliver — Just Call 1190

115 N. Main St.

Special Attention to the Motorists

We've devoted a lot of time and study to the fine art of removing grease, road oil, and mud stains from all kinds of materials. The motorists in these parts have always kind of looked to us to do their cleaning, and we've just naturally got into the habit of doing it. If you've got into difficulties, call us up; if you contemplate getting into them, remember our telephone number.

AFRAID SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Operation Advised, But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made It Unnecessary

Glasgow, Kentucky. — "I was run-down, nervous, with no appetite. My side had given me trouble for five or six years. At times it was all I could do to live, and the doctor said I couldn't live but a short time longer without an operation. That was two years ago. My sister-in-law recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She had never used it herself, but she said one of her neighbors suffered just like I did, and it cured her. After I had taken four bottles the pain left my side. I had a fine appetite to eat anything that was put before me, and I began to do all my work and my washing, something I hadn't done for years. I am a dressmaker, and this last fall I began suffering with my side again, so I began taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am on my fourth bottle, which makes eight in all I have taken. I feel so much better when I take it and everybody tells me I look better. My appetite improves and I feel stronger in every way. I am a very nervous woman and it seems to help my nerves so much." — Mrs. MAGGIE WALLER, Glasgow, Ky.

REQUIRE SPEEDOMETER
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 21—A law requiring every automobile to be equipped with speedometers would aid materially in stopping speeding. This was the opinion today of Lieut. Earl Halstead, in charge of the motorcycle division of the Indianapolis police department. He said the majority of speeders arrested drove cars without speedometers.

Girls! Have Pretty Eyes

No girl is pretty if her eyes are red, strained or have dark rings. Simple camphor, witchhazel, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash, keeps eyes healthy, sparkling and vivacious. Dainty eye cup free. Hargrove and Brown, druggists.

MOVIES

At the Princess Today

"The Fighting Coward," the latest James Cruze Paramount production, was partially filmed by a singular coincidence in a mansion at Natchez, Miss., which has borne the name of "Magnolia," the title of the Booth Tarkington stage success, from which this picture was adapted, for more than seventy years.

Among the many southern mansions which were examined with a view to use in "The Fighting Coward" the one finally selected was the only one which has remained unchanged by modern improvements or surroundings. Situated on a bluff about two miles from Natchez and overlooking the Mississippi river, Magnolia remains today one of the finest examples of southern architecture before the civil war.

Several fine old mansions overlooking the river in Natchez or the vicinity have been spoiled for motion picture purposes by modernization or by modern surroundings. One fine house close to the river is sandwiched between saw-mills and backed by railroads.

Only the house itself was used by James Cruze in producing "The Fighting Coward." The splendid gardens of "Monmouth," another southern mansion at Natchez, were used for some of the out door scenes in the picture.

The featured players in the production which will be the feature at the Princess Theatre again today, are Ernest Torrence, Mary Astor, Noah Berry, Phyllis Haver and Cullen Landis.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

of his young and beautiful step-daughter, kills her husband after a furious fight, and steals her $200,000 collection of jewels—it's a safe bet that there is "DANGER AHEAD" for anybody who interferes with him.

But this villain is only one of the dangers encountered by the smiling and athletic Richard Talmadge in Phil Goldstone's current production. Before the picture ends, Talmadge faces—and outfaces—such other dangers as a pair of clever crooked lawyers, a keenly suspicious District Attorney, an underworld desperado known as "The Dago", and a reckless chauffeur who leaves a trail of victims struck down behind him.

There are enough dangers ahead to satisfy the most eager motion picture fan, and they are avoided by athletic feats which are unequalled by any other performer on the screen. A touch of spiky comedy lightens the intensity of the plot, and is the final ingredient in an entertainment that comes Friday and Saturday to the Castle.

MAXWELL

Initiates a New Order

The public in general probably has no adequate realization of the great advances which have recently been made in motor car engineering.

It is a fact that the good Maxwell, together with the Chrysler Six, has literally accomplished a revolution in motor car results.

If you have not familiarized yourself with the good Maxwell since Chrysler engineers began their work with it, you cannot begin to appreciate what it means to thorough satisfaction and economical, care-free motoring.

Its engineering design and its fine materials are directly responsible for the statements of owners that the good Maxwell now costs less to maintain than any car they have ever known. When you ride in the good Maxwell, be prepared for a quietness and a smoothness that you probably never expected from a four-cylinder engine.

One reason why you don't feel any trace of vibration when you ride behind the Maxwell motor, is the fact that the reciprocating parts of the engine are balanced to the fraction of an ounce.

Another reason is a floating platform spring mounting under the front end of the motor—a wonderfully effective device which is exclusive to Maxwell.

Owners will tell you that gasoline economy generally averages 24 miles to the gallon.

LODGE APPROVES BUILDING PLANS

Odd Fellows Empower Committee to Continue Work, Which Will be Started, September 1

BUILDINGS TO BE JOINED

New Structure Will Give Frontage of 120 Feet in Morgan Street for the Lodge

Members of Franklin lodge No. 35, I. O. O. F., approved the report of the building committee Wednesday night and empowered the committee to go ahead with the remodeling of the Poundstone property at the corner of Morgan and Third streets, and extending 165 feet south in Morgan street, which was recently purchased by the lodge for a home.

The committee expects to have the work started by September 1.

The comprehensive remodeling plan calls for extending the present buildings, south of the main building, to the sidewalk line in Morgan street, and the erection of a two-story building in the vacant space between the building occupied by Dr. D. D. VanOsdol's offices and the Home Restaurant.

This will give a Morgan street frontage of 120 feet for the lodge building, and will leave the office rooms undisturbed.

The main entrance to the building will be at the entrance to the Dr. VanOsdol's offices. Entrances to Dr. VanOsdol's and Dr. J. M. Lee's offices will be from the lobby at the main entrance and from this will lead the only stairway to the second floor.

The second floor of the main building, which has a frontage of 44 feet in Morgan street and is fifty feet deep, will be used as a lodge room. All of the partitions will be torn out and a raised platform will be built around the four sides of the room.

On the second floor over the rooms where Dr. Lee's and Dr. VanOsdol's offices are situated, will be candidates' rooms and lockers for storing the degree teams' paraphernalia.

The second floor of the extension, which will join up the old building with the two-story brick building on the alley, occupied by the Home Restaurant and Harrell's ice cream plant, will be used as a dining room by the lodge.

The committee expects to decorate the lodge room and all of the second floor rooms on an elaborate scale. The same artist who decorated the lodge room which was destroyed by fire January 25, will be engaged to do the work.

After these plans are carried out, the lodge expects to redecorate and otherwise improve the second floor of the building.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES TO CONTRIBUTE A LIGHT

Postmaster A. L. Riggs and 19 Men at Postoffice First to Announce Gift for Boulevard

OTHERS EXPECTED TO FOLLOW

Postmaster A. L. Riggs and local postal employees are the first to announce that they will purchase a pedestal light for the Memorial park boulevard which is now under construction.

The announcement was made this afternoon that Mr. Riggs and the nineteen men at the postoffice, including the city letter carriers and rural mail carriers, had raised a fund of $50 which will be used to purchase one of the thirty-three ornamental lights which it is hoped to erect along the boulevard, when it is completed, beginning at Ninth street and following the new roadway around to Main street.

The public spirit demonstrated by the postmaster and postal employees, it is believed, will stir many groups of men as well as fraternal, civic, social and commercial organizations to do their part in making the boulevard a "great white way."

The better Rush county organization made the first appeal for subscriptions through the Daily Republican Wednesday evening and the postoffice men's response was prompt.

MRS. E. R. CASADY RETURNED

Presence of Mind Saves Her From Being Seriously Injured

Mrs. E. R. Casady was painfully burned about the face, arms, and shoulders Wednesday evening about six o'clock while assisting in the preparation of the evening meal at her home in East Ninth street.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Casady opened the oven door of a cooking stove, releasing gas which had escaped and accumulated in the oven, and which became ignited in some manner from one of the burners on top of the stove. Mrs. Casady's clothing caught fire and it is thought that only her presence of mind in wrapping an apron quickly about the burning garments, saved her from serious injury.

KIWANIS OFFERS TO SUPPORT DAY

Pledges Efforts to Co-operate in Observance of Defense Day on September 12

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED

Robert E. Mansfield, District Chairman, Explains Purpose of the Demonstration

Defense Day plans were outlined and an appeal made to the Kiwanis club for support of the state-wide observance September 12, at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club today noon, when Robert E. Mansfield, district manager of the Defense Day program, spoke to the club.

Vorhees Cavitt of this city, who has been appointed county chairman by Mr. Mansfield, was present at the meeting today and asked for support from the club members.

The club pledged co-operation with the proposed movement, and appointed a Defense Day committee to represent the club, and the members of the committee are Carl Hester, Dr. H. V. Logan and Earl Osborne.

Mr. Mansfield explained the purpose of the Defense Day program that will be carried into practically every state of the union on September 12. He pointed out that the idea was not to portray the strength of man-power or battle ships, but to bring out all agencies in the commercial world as well, and show the power that the United States has in reserve in many forms, other than military strength.

Among the guests were Leslie Pore of Toledo, a young man who is visiting Fred Arbuckle, and who gave several musical selections, and Mr. Evans, associated with the Fifth Third National bank of Cincinnati. Thomas Garriott, secretary of the Greenfield club, was also a guest.

G. O. P. STATE LEADERS RELIEVED OF PROBLEMS

Controversy Over Supt. Burris' Successor Ends When He Announces he Will Continue

UNTIL AFTER THE ELECTION

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 21—Republican leaders were relieved of a difficult political problem today through announcement that Benjamin Burris, state superintendent of public instruction, will not resign at the present time.

Announcement that Burris had decided not to quit on Sept. 1 to become head of the state normal at Muncie was made after he had a long conference with Governor Branch.

With Burris continuing in office, Branch is relieved of the necessity of choosing between a repudiation of H. N. Sherwood, of Franklin, Republican candidate for superintendent of public instruction, or appointment of Sherwood to fill Burris' unexpired term over the strenuous protest of state educators.

State educators opposed Sherwood for the post because of his connection with alleged fraudulent teachers' training licenses issued two years ago.

It is believed Burris will continue in office until after the election.

FOILED

Slow Season for Summer Resorts, Local People Say

Rush county people who are spending vacations at the resorts of Northern Indiana, Michigan, and Wisconsin report that, as a general rule, these places are doing only about fifty percent of their normal business for this time of the year. The cause of this condition is attributed to the late cool season which enables people to remain comfortably at home and to the increasing tendency of motorists to cover as much territory as possible during their vacations, pausing only long enough to pitch camp at night.

BOLT STRIKES NEAR THE COOLIDGE HOME

Only Fact That House Was Not Wired Prevented Fire and Possible Injury to Occupants

COOLIDGES IGNORANT OF IT

By WILLIAM J. LUSH
Plymouth, Vt., Aug. 21—A bolt of lightning struck within fifty yards of President Coolidge and his family during a terrific electric storm which swept Plymouth last night.

Only the fact that the home of the president's father is not wired for either telephone or electric lights prevented a fire and possible injury to those in the house.

The bolt struck a telephone pole in the rear of the house of J. J. Wilder, just up the road from the Coolidge house.

A sheet of flame sped along the wires, passed the Coolidge house and then flashed in the temporary telephone office installed in the general store. The telephone repairman who put the circuits back into commission declared the damage clearly showed that the bolt was a tremendous discharge. Had it struck the Coolidge house, it might have destroyed it.

The president and members of his family were not alarmed and were ignorant of the danger. They heard only the crash of the bolt.

STARTS AS REPORTER

Harold Tittsworth, Indiana University student and son of John A. Tittsworth, has accepted a position on the Daily Republican as a reporter until September 1, when he will go to Washington, D. C., to study law in Georgetown University.

ONE WEEK UNTIL THE RURAL SCHOOLS OPEN

All Except Jackson Township and Carthage Buildings Will Get Under Way Sept. 1

FEW TEACHERS' VACANCIES

Only another full week of vacation remains for most of the rural schools, which will open Monday, September 1 in most of the townships, according to B. D. Farthing, county school superintendent.

The school in Jackson township and Carthage will probably not start with the rest of the schools. The Jackson township school will wait until September 8, when the Rushville city schools open, because the high school pupils will be transferred here, and the township would have an additional week to pay for the hauling of the pupils, unless the two schools started at once.

The Carthage school building, which is nearing completion, after having been completely remodeled will not be ready for September 1. This building is ready, it is understood, but some of the equipment and supplies have been delayed, and the school will probably not be ready for the opening until the second week in September.

The supply of teachers is said to be good, but the right kind of a teacher for certain positions is a hard matter, according to Mr. Farthing, who reported today that there were still several vacancies that had to be supplied before the school opening.

JUDGMENT OF $1,750 ASKED

J. R. Watkins Co. Files Suit Against Representative

The J. R. Watkins Company, an Indiana corporation that deals in drugs and sundries, has brought suit in the circuit court against a local representative, D. G. Douthitt and his bondsmen, seeking judgment for $1,750. The complaint alleges that the contract between the agent and the firm has been broken, and that the sum demanded is due the plaintiff.

In another suit file in the circuit court, Charles Foster, and Harriet Foster are plaintiffs and Chris Rowe, defendant. The suit is for ejectment of the defendant from a house, and the complaint also seeks judgment for $100.

OUR DAILY BOOST

What's Wrong With Rush County Land?

Rush County land owners are overlooking the chance to elevate their own status to the detriment of the county.

Rush County land owners have an opportunity in educational boosting, which does not seem open to any other division of business.

By such boosting they may emphasize every principle of republican government; liberty, opportunity to advance, loyalty to county, right to achieve prominence in any walk of life, and tie them all to the ownership of land.

There's nothing wrong with Rush County Land!

MORE THAN PASSING INTEREST IN MEETING

LETTER FROM WALTER W. HEAD

Rush county bankers are taking more than passing interest this year in the convention of the American Bankers association, since it will be held at Chicago, September 29 to October 2. Due to the fact that the convention will be in easy access of local bankers and also that it comes in the midst of the presidential campaign, the attendance from this county is expected to be larger than usual.

Glen Foster, cashier of the American National bank and county chairman for the American Bankers Association, has received a communication from Walter W. Head, president, pointing out the importance of the meeting and urging the attendance of every banker in the county.

Mr. Head refers to the fact that the convention will be entirely devoid of partisan flavor, but that it will necessarily take note of the condition in which the country finds itself.

It is expected that Rush county bankers will also be well represented at the annual convention of the Indiana Bankers' Association in Indianapolis September 11 and 12.

ACTS AS CHIEF OPERATOR

Miss Margaret Carroll is acting as chief operator at the Rushville Telephone company office in the absence of Miss Anna Geraghty.

PLANNING TO DRILL FOR OIL

Estell and Rhodes of Knightstown Seeking Rush County Leases

Estell and Rhodes, well drillers of Knightstown, recently were in this city endeavoring to secure leases on land in northern Rush county, with the intention of drilling for oil.

It is understood that they propose to lease about two thousand acres in the neighborhood of Knightstown, and to start immediately the drilling of a well just outside the city limits southeast of the city. Two wells, previously drilled, one northeast and one west, both produced oil.

Estell and Rhodes have recently been drilling in the southwestern states.

TRAIN IS WRECKED, ENGINEER KILLED

Fireman Also Probably Fatally Scalded When B. & O. Passenger Leaves Rails Near Mitchell

ENGINE, 3 CARS TURN OVER

Passengers All Escape Injury in Mishap Caused by Engineer Taking The Siding

(By United Press)
Washington, Ind., Aug. 21—John Donnell, engineer, was killed and Fireman Simmons was probably fatally scalded when the Baltimore & Ohio passenger train No. 12, St. Louis to Cincinnati, was wrecked: short distance west of Mitchell early today.

The engine and three cars turned over while the train was traveling at high speed. The passengers all escaped injury.

The track was torn up for several hundred feet, blocking traffic for several hours.

Donnell and Simmons both lived here.

After a preliminary investigation it was said Donnell took the siding near the Mitchell station and thought he was on the main line. The train struck a derail at the end of the siding nearly a mile from Mitchell.

Simmons was taken to a hospital in Seymour where it was said that his recovery was doubtful.

Donnell was 78 years old and was one of the oldest engineers in the country. He was eligible for retirement several years ago but refused, saying he wanted to stay with his throttle.

Members of the Philadelphia National baseball team, enroute to Cincinnati for a game this afternoon, were on the train. None of the team was injured.

A special train detoured over the Monon railroad took the ball players and other passengers on their way to Cincinnati.

PREPARE REPORT ON THE 'KID'S' MENTALITY

Defense Physicians at Work While Two Corps of Legal Experts Get Ready for Hearing

M'COY SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 21—Two corps of expert criminal procedure craftsmen speeded into action today, one attempting to send Kid McCoy to the gallows and the others hoping to free him.

When the former ring idol and heart breaker without a peer, spent another quiet night following his brainstorm of Tuesday, physicians employed by the defense to find traces of insanity in the "kid's" mentality prepared a report to be submitted today.

Picturing McCoy as a plain everyday bandit instead of the "great lover", who killed his latest sweetheart, District Attorney Asa Keyes indicated he would prosecute McCoy on a charge of murdering Mrs. Theresa Mors with robbery as the motive.

This decision came after the former pugilist's sister, Mrs. Jennie Thomas, turned over to police jewels valued at $12,000 which Mrs. Mors was said to be wearing at the time of her death, in the "love nest" where she and McCoy were living as man and wife.

FLIERS HOP OFF FOR GREENLAND

Accompanied by Italian Aviator, Lieuts. Smith and Nelson are Sighted Over U. S. S. Richmond

707 MILES FROM REYKJAVIK

All of the Machines Running Perfectly—Flight Imperative Due to Low Fuel Supply

On board the U. S. S. Richmond, at sea, Aug. 21—With Major Locatelli, the Italian aviator, in the lead and Lieuts. Smith and Nelson, the Americans, following in order, the three round the world fliers passed over the Richmond at 9:32 a. m., (Greenwich time) today.

All the machines were running perfectly, the sky was somewhat cloudy and the sea was smooth as they drove on their way.

(The Richmond is approximately 707 miles from Reykjavik, guarding one portion of the Yoland-Greenland leg.)

Washington, Aug. 21—A bare cable from Iceland that the American fliers had started their daring 825 mile dash over the ice clogged ocean to Greenland set the war department agog this morning.

News that the aviators had hopped off was received through the naval radio shortly before 10 a. m., it was learned.

(A direct dispatch to the United Press from its Reykjavik correspondent was received in New York at 7:30 a. m. that the fliers were on their way.)

Every agency of communication over which the government has control was immediately tuned for advices on the program of the longest hop yet attempted by the round the world fliers.

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 21—Lieutenants Lowell Smith and Eric Nelson, the American air globe trotters, got away at 7:10 a'clock this morning and with clear weather favoring them, disappeared into the southwest headed for Fredericksdal Greenland, 825 miles away.

The Americans were accompanied by Lieut. Locatelli, the Italian round the world flier.

There is a possibility the fliers may not make an extended stop at Fredericksdal, Smith declared before hopping off. Present plans call for an overnight halt but there is a chance the three airmen may wing on to Ivaglut on the western coast of Greenland. This is dependent upon Continued on Page Six

MEAN TEMPERATURE ON MARS ABOVE FREEZING

Heat Conditions Vastly Different From Conditions Previously Supposed to Exist There

REVEALED IN NEW STUDIES

By MAGNER WHITE
(Written for United Press)

Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz., Aug. 21—Heat conditions on Mars are vastly different from the conditions previously supposed to exist there, it has been revealed in special studies made at Lowell observatory here.

Using specially designed instruments that reacted directly to heat reflected from the planet, the scientists found a state of affairs not at all inhospitable to organic life.

The results are in conflict with those obtained from mathematical computations.

From this the scientists at Lowell Observatory infer unknown factors govern the temperature of the planet. In no way can they discover the discrepancies in the instruments and theoretical computations.

The investigations reveal, that contrary to prevailing belief, the mean temperature of Mars instead of being below freezing is probably much above that point.

Not taking into account the factors that seem to operate upon the sun's light at or near the planet's surface of Mars reacts to the heat coming to it across space much as does the earth, tests shows.

The Improved COACH on the HUDSON Super-Six

For the First Time in History Closed Car Comforts at EXACTLY Open Car Cost

This Hudson Coach makes history. It is the first closed car ever to sell at exactly open car cost.

And Hudson, alone, can build it. As the largest producer of 6-cylinder closed cars in the world, Hudson exclusively holds the advantages to create this car and this price.

Greatest of All Hudson Achievements

And now full size balloon tires are standard equipment. Do not confuse with "semi-balloon" types. Hudson's are genuine, full size balloon tires—33"x6.20". Compare the difference.

Hudson has not simply "added balloon tires." Both running and steering gear have been especially designed to compensate for the radical differences balloon tires bring.

The result is the easiest

Making Tax Levies

This is the season when taxpayers should be alert. If they have a complaint against tax rates, they should not wait until next spring when they pay their taxes, to raise it.

Now is the time. The law provides a way for taxpayers to get a hearing on the budget of any municipal corporation, school corporation or township, which is used as the basis for making the tax levies for 1925.

Careful newspaper readers will have noticed that the various townships have been giving notice in legal advertisements that the taxing officials will meet on Tuesday, September 2, to give consideration to the budget, which is appended, and to make up the tax rates for the coming year.

This is in accordance with the law of Indiana. The Budget law of 1921, Acts 1921, page 640, requires that the proper officer of each corporation shall publish a budget upon forms prescribed by the state board of accounts, "showing in detail the money proposed to be expended during the succeeding year, the valuation of all taxable property within the jurisdiction, and the rate of taxation which it is proposed to establish after a public hearing."

This hearing must be fixed at such time as will not be too late for the taxpayers to exercise their right of appeal from the levies then made.

Ten or more taxpayers, who will be affected by the levy, other than those who pay poll taxes only, may file an appeal with the county auditor, not later than the fourth Monday in September. The auditor immediately will forward the appeal to the state board of tax commissioners, who must fix a date for hearing within the county not less than five nor more than thirty days after receipt of such appeal. After the hearing the state board may approve or reduce the levies, but may not increase them.

How Times Change

Who can remember the time when a fellow in need of a shave and haircut had only to take a sprint along the curb for a red, white and blue barber pole. Or, when a fellow could satisfy his appetite in a lunchroom, buy his spectacles of an optician, buy his daily rations at a grocery and butcher shop, take it home to a cottage and have it cooked by a long-haired wife, buy his clothes at the clothing store, have his watch fixed by a repairman, have his physical ailments cured by the family doctor and be buried by an undertaker?

But "them days have gone forever." If he is not adept with a safety razor, he must hire himself to a tonsorial parlor or masseur to get rid of a few days' growth, and there he finds a shop full of women folks waiting their turn with the champion barber.

Once upon a time a hand-me-down and a derby graced a dummy on the flag stones outside the clothing store, and in those days a fellow never had to look up a sartorial arcade for a two-pants suit and a four-in-hand.

When a man wanted a "ham-and" in those happy, bygone days, he never thought of looking up a restaurant, a cafe, a cafeteria or a roof garden.

Butcher shops and grocery stores suited our respected ancestors and they thrived on the fare, but modernity must call them delicatessen shops and markets. A watch repairman was a watch repairman but now he is a horologist, and the modern jeweler is a lapidary. An optician was an optician, but in these days he is an optometrist.

A couple of decades ago a mortician was just a plain undertaker. In the succeeding years he has been described as an embalmer and a funeral director.

Time was when a cottage was a cottage, not a bungalow; a balcony was just a balcony like the budding Romeo and Juliet's used, not a mezzanine floor; an automobile was an automobile, not a coupe, sedan, landaulet, Brougham or berlin; socks were not hosiery; ties were not cravats; dressmakers were not modistes; doctors were neither surgeons, specialists, pathologists, adeopaths, homeopaths, osteopaths, chiropractors and chiropodists.

There may be a reason, but what is it?

The Hodge - Podge

By a Paragrapher with a Soul

Life has no bitterness if we flavor it with something sweet each day.

Truth is scarce, which makes it mighty.

Don't scrap unless the other fellow insists on it — and then do a good job.

Not all of the babies called Bill get the name because they arrive the first day of the month.

Folks are hard to please who laugh at grief and cry at every wheeze.

All who are cuckoo are not housed in clocks.

Hitting the high spots is always followed by low spirits.

Taking it easy often results in our getting it hard later on.

And another one of the imperative needs of the day is a flivvering wage.

The great trouble with most of us is that we feel at home every place but home.

SAFETY SAM

WASHINGTON.—Now that the nominations are over and the candidates are duly aware of their nominations, Democratic managers have before them as the big task of the campaign the job of finding some method to offset what may be termed the "radio reaction" against the Democratic convention.

For although on the surface the major animosities engendered during the 16 days' battle at New York have been allayed, and the professional party politicians have fallen into line behind the "party's choice," there is no dodging the fact that the exhibition of inter-party friction and divergence of views staged at the convention made an adverse impression on the rank and file of voters that will require all Davis' skill and diplomacy to erase.

No parallel exists for the present situation.

For the recent conventions were the first at which the rank and file of voters, the folks who cast the ballots but do not attend the conventions, were not as big game.

The great radio, numbering millions, did something besides merely "listen in." It formed opinions and drew conclusions.

Having heard and arrived at clearly established views of its own, it will be more difficult for the party's campaign picture to paint a convincing picture of harmony and unity and strength.

That this is a handicap more difficult to overcome than the mere charges and arguments of rival party spokesmen is being forced home on the attention of the Democratic managers.

Of course it is a subject that isn't spoken about out loud. Matters of deepest concern often are held most secret. But by the same token they are the ones that cause the most worry.

DAVIS, as the candidate of the New York convention, falls heir, therefore, to the defections from the party which were broadcast, along with the convention bickerings, by the convention radio. Can he, either in person or by radio, by broadcasting his own magnetism and personality, offset the damage to his campaign the radio has accomplished even before his nomination?

If he can accomplish that, he will have overcome what is perhaps the greatest difficulty in his race.

INQUIRIES quietly made in non political homes in many sections of the country have developed that the views and opinions gained by the ordinary folks who listened in on the convention are very clear and definitely fixed.

They are not regarded by their holders as based on second hand information. Every one of these listeners in thinks of himself as having been present at the convention in person. If you try to tell one of these that he has the wrong dope, his answer will be:

"You can't tell me! I heard the whole thing myself, and I know what I'm talking about!"

Typical of answers received to inquiries sent out by mail to sound the extent of this "radio reaction," is the following from a reply received from a rural section of Indiana:

A lifelong Democrat, who heard the whole convention by radio, is so disgusted with the way they did, he says he will vote for Coolidge. And he is not the only Democrat from around here who will vote for him."

THE radio, as a political instrument, therefore, appears to have its handicaps as well as its advantages.

PEOPLE'S SAYSO

MOBILIZATION DAY

Mobilization of "defense forces" in times of peace is new! It is the newest thing in the history of the nation.

The above statement is not true. The greatest mobilization of DEFENSE FORCES that was ever called on American soil was President Harding's Peace Congress held in Washington at the beginning of his administration.

There are two forces operating in the world today for the defense of nations. One belongs to the dark days of superstition tyranny and national bigotry and the other belongs to the reign of the Prince of Peace. Both forces operate internationally and each recognizes the rights of individual nations. The two "defense organizations" are now thoroughly organized though the militarists are much stronger in money power than the other.

The militarists had the scare of their lives while President Harding's Defense Program was being arranged and forthwith got ready to pull off the stunt in the Ruhr! MOBILIZATION DAY IS ANOTHER STUNT!

It would be wrong to say that there are not sincere misguided men on each side—any movement made up of humans must of necessity be such, but when it comes to selecting the giant among leaders there is no question that President Harding stands preeminent.

"But," says one, "President Harding is dead." NO PRESIDENT HARDING IS NOT DEAD! He is more alive today than when he walked the streets of Washington. President Harding is living in the heart of every LOYAL American citizen who wishes to see his nation arise from the dead past of medievalism and walk out of the grave of "imperialism" into the broad sunlight of the Kingdom of God on earth.

Farrell Sees Finns Declining

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Aug. 21—Finland, as the runner-up to the United States in the Olympic track and field games at Paris, lived up to the predictions made after the 1920 games in Antwerp. But Finland did not put up the fight that was expected.

The Finnish team that competed in Paris was not nearly as strong or as well balanced as the little band of sturdy athletes that thrilled the crowds in the Belgian capital.

In the field events, where the Finns were expected to run deeply into the territory that had been more or less leased by the United States, they failed badly. On the track they would have been shut out if they did not have the marvelous Nurmi and the plodding Ritola.

In the four years between 1920 and 1924, when American coaches figured that they would make a lot of progress, the Finns not only failed to develop strength, but they apparently suffered a decline.

Finland scored a lot of points in the Paris games, and it was quite an accomplishment for such a small nation, but their results were not so inspiring when it is recalled that two athletes, Nurmi and Ritola, won five events and co-operated in winning a sixth for a total of more than 60 points.

Much has been published about the little band of 70 Finns that held its head up so well in competition against a powerful team of more than 300 Americans. Some of the English newspapermen made much of the disparity in numbers until it was called to their attention that the 300 Americans were not all track and field men and that the team which was regarded as an American unit consisted of tennis players, swimmers, oarsmen, cyclists, boxers, wrestlers, fencers, gymnasts and horsemen. Many Americans argue that the United States, and the officials wanted to do it, could have sent a team of 30 track and field stars to Paris and would have scored as many points.

Suggestions were made that the only way to impose what has been looked upon as a necessary handicap on the Americans would be to limit the entries in each event to one starter. To which the Americans replied, "Fair enough. We'll play the game any way you will play it yourself."

Since the Finns were not as strong in Paris as they were in Antwerp there is no reason to believe that the present system of conducting athletics in Finland will produce a better team in 1928. The system is a good one, and it would seem that the failure of the Finns to progress in the past four years was a result of poor material and not because of a defective system of teaching and training.

The Finns are natural runners, but they do not take to sprinting, jumping and hurdling, and they never can hope to win an Olympic championship without developing strength in those events.

Thompson's Fruit Market

We still have Georgia Bell White Peaches for Saturday; also Yellow Elberta peaches. We are buying Tip-Top Cantaloupes direct from the growers. We truck them ourselves and see that they are picked ripe. This insures you ripe, sweet cantaloupes. I know the cantaloupes that were shipped were not as sweet as they should be, but these home melons are extra sweet and good. Watermelons on ice. We sell halves when you prefer them. Blue Damsen Plums are here now. Fresh Vegetables every day. We carry a full line of the best quality Fruits that can be bought. Fresh Fish are fine now. Country Butter and Fresh Eggs.

FLIERS HOP OFF FOR GREENLAND

weather conditions at Fredericksdal. Ivigut is the last stop in Greenland for the fliers and is up the western coast 150 miles from Fredericksdal.

The air adventurers will make a one day's stop at Ivigut and then take to the air again, heading for Indian Harbor, Labrador, whence they will continue down the eastern coast of North America to Boston. They hope to arrive in Boston not later than September 1.

Today's flight was almost imperative owing to the low fuel supply on the navy cruisers which are guarding the airmen.

Navy officials pointed out that there are no tankers close to the path of the fliers and that the ships probably be forced to make long cruises in order to refuel in case the delay was extended.

The U. S. S. Richmond, American cruiser which brought repair parts to the fliers following the accident Monday, cruised out to take its place in the chain of convoys between Iceland and Greenland last night.

The hop off terminated a fortnight's delay here caused first by unfavorable weather and later by a mishap which occurred early this week when the planes were damaged attempting to take the air with too heavy a load of fuel.

HONORS GUESTS

Mrs. Pete Johnson entertained at her home in East Eighth street with a dainty breakfast honoring several out of town guests who have been visiting in this city for the past two weeks. The table was artistically arranged with pretty garden flowers. Covers were laid for Mrs. Louis Smith and Mrs. Burney Hines and children of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Mollie Waite of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Claude Bradley of Springfield, Ohio, Mrs. M. Martin of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. John Walker of Indianapolis and Mrs. Marcia Hughes, Mrs. William Bradley, Mrs. Orville Cruse, Mrs. Willis Summerville, Mrs. Essex Barber and Miss Leona Fletcher.

ALICE KING WINNER

Miss Alice King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted C. King of near Salem, was one of the honor campers at the Girls' club camp in Shelby county last week, instead of Miss Leila King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard King, who was announced as one of the winners of honors. Leila King did not attend the camp, it is stated.

BODY DISINTERRED

The body of Benton Fulton, thirteen years old, who died at his home near Glenwood last February, was disinterred and sent to Klondike, Texas, for reinterment this morning. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fulton who came to this locality from Texas and are now living there.

TO TEACH AT BUTLER COLLEGE

Irvin T. Shultz will be in the Department of Education

Irvin T. Shultz, formerly teacher of history in the Rushville High School, will take up new duties this year as assistant professor in the department of education at Butler College. Mr. Shultz, who taught here during the years 1919-21, was named as one of the additions to the Butler faculty, in an announcement recently made public by Dr. Robert J. Alex, president of the college.

Mr. Shultz was popular in this city and in the local school, where he took part in various activities, among them being the coaching of a highly successful scrub basketball team. After leaving here, Mr. Shultz was principal of the Mt. Vernon high school. He has been teaching this summer at Manchester College. Mr. Shultz was graduated from Earlham with the degree of A. B., and received a master's degree at Columbia.

AFRAID SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Operation Advised, But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made It Unnecessary

Glasgow, Kentucky. — "I was run-down, nervous, with no appetite. My side had given me trouble for five or six years. At times it was all I could do to live, and the doctor said I couldn't live but a short time longer without an operation. That was two years ago. My sister-in-law recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She had never used it herself, but she said one of her neighbors suffered just like I did, and it cured her. After I had taken four bottles the pain left my side. I had a fine appetite to eat anything that was put before me, and I began to do all my work and my washing, something I hadn't done for years. I am a dressmaker, and this last fall I began suffering with my side again, so I began taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am on my fourth bottle, which makes eight in all I have taken. I feel so much better when I take it and everybody tells me I look better. My appetite improves and I feel stronger in every way. I am a very nervous woman and it seems to help my nerves so much."—Mrs. MAGGIE WALLER, Glasgow, Ky.

Any one of these reasons puts the De Laval in a class by itself.

- 1 Over 2,500,000 in use—almost as many as all the rest combined.
- 2 Won 1,091 grand and first prizes at all important expositions and fairs in the world during the past 40 years.
- 3 De Laval butter has won first prize at every meeting but one of the National Buttermakers Association.
- 4 62% of the separators in Minnesota, the largest butter state, are De Laval's. (Investigation by farm paper.)
- 5 Practically all creameries use DeLaval Power Separators.
- 6 Endorsed, recommended and used by colleges, dairy authorities and leading dairymen everywhere.
- 7 Thousands in use from 15 to 20 years, and still doing good work.
- 8 De Laval Separators have led in every important separator improvement for 40 years.
- 9 Made in the world's largest and best equipped separator factory.
- 10 Backed by the most thorough system of service. You can buy a De Laval on easy terms so that it will pay for itself while in use.

REQUIRE SPEEDOMETER

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 21—A law requiring every automobile to be equipped with speedometers would aid materially in stopping speeding. This was the opinion today of Lieut. Earl Halstead, in charge of the motorcycle division of the Indianapolis police department. He said the majority of speeders arrested drove cars without speedometers.

At the Princess Today

"The Fighting Coward," the latest James Craze Paramount production, was partially filmed by a singular coincidence in a mansion at Natchez, Miss., which has borne the name of "Magnolia," the title of the Booth Tarkington stage success, from which this picture was adapted, for more than seventy years.

Among the many southern mansions which were examined with a view to use in "The Fighting Coward" the one finally selected was the only one which has remained unchanged by modern improvements or surroundings. Situated on a bluff about two miles from Natchez and overlooking the Mississippi river, Magnolia remains today one of the finest examples of southern architecture before the civil war.

Several fine old mansions overlooking the river in Natchez or the vicinity have been spoiled for motion picture purposes by modernization or by modern surroundings. One fine house close to the river is sandwiched between saw-mills and backed by railroads.

Only the house itself was used by James Craze in producing "The Fighting Coward." The splendid gardens of "Moumou," another southern mansion at Natchez, were used for some of the out door scenes in the picture.

The featured players in the production which will be the feature at the Princess Theatre again today, are Ernest Torrence, Mary Astor, Noah Berry, Phyllis Haver and Callen Landis.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

of his young and beautiful step-daughter, kills her husband after a furious fight, and steals her $200,000 collection of jewels—it's a safe bet that there is "DANGER AHEAD" for anybody who interferes with him.

But this villain is only one of the dangers encountered by the smiling and athletic Richard Talmadge in Phil Goldstone's current production. Before the picture ends, Talmadge faces—and outfaces—such other dangers as a pair of clever crooked lawyers, a keenly suspicious District Attorney, an underworld desperado known as "The Dago", and a reckless chauffeur who leaves a trail of victims struck down behind him.

There are enough dangers ahead to satisfy the most eager motion picture fan, and they are avoided by athletic feats which are unequalled by any other performer on the screen. A touch of spicy comedy lightens the intensity of the plot, and is the final ingredient in an entertainment that comes Friday and Saturday to the Castle.
